

I. READING

I live in a house Dover with my parents, my twin sister, Kate and my little sister, Lucy. I'm eleven years old, but Lucy is only six. Our house is quite big. There are two floors and an attic. Downstairs on the ground floor there is a sitting room, a dining room, a kitchen and a toilet. Upstairs on the next floor there is a bathroom, a toilet and three bedrooms. The big bedroom is my parents' room. Kate and Lucy's room is opposite theirs. My bedroom is the small one. Our play room is in the attic in the roof. That's the best room in the house.

The attic is our favourite room. It's at the top of the house. There are some stairs up to it and a very small door. The attic is dark and a bit spooky. Lucy's afraid of it but I'm not. I like it because it's ours.

There are a lot of things in it. There's an old bed next to the wall. There's a desk, a big table and some chairs next to the window. There are some spiders and a bird's nest in the chimney.

In the corner there's an enormous cupboard. It's full of games, old dolls and toys and clothes.

On the walls there are lots of flags and posters and a photo of my favourite football team.

There aren't any curtains but there's an old red carpet on the floor. Under the bed there's a box for my models and badges. I like the attic best when I'm alone in it.
