I. READING

A lot of families in the United Kingdom have got a pet. There are dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs, hamsters and exotic pets: spiders and snakes. The most popular pet is the cat. A lot of people have got two or three cats.
Sarah lives with her parents and two brothers in a small town of Hay-on-Wye in Wales. She is eleven years old. Her brother Tommy is seven and Nick is nine. They have three family pets: a cat, a guinea pig and a spider. The spider is Sarah's favourite. Its name is Crazy. Crazy is a tarantula. It's very, very big – fifteen centimetres long. Sarah feeds Crazy on worms and lettuce. It eats four worms a day. Tommy likes their cat best. Its name is Cleo. Lara, the guinea pig, is Nick's favourite pet. Lara eats carrots and bread. The children have some books about wild animals. Sarah likes reading about dolphins. These animals are very big and clever. They are about three metres long. They can jump six metres out of the water. They live for about 30 years. The boys like reading about tigers. Tigers are yellow and black. They live in the jungle and eat meat. They hunt at night. They can run very fast. Tigers live for about 20 years.
