

I. READING

Dear Grandma,
How are you doing? I hope you're well. I'm fine. Thanks for the rucksack. It's great!
I've got all my school books and things in it now. In the summer I'm going to hike in the mountains with my father, so I can take it there.
Our new house is nice but there aren't many shops in our road. There's only a newsagent's and a post office but there are a lot of shops and cafés in the centre of Malvern. My friend Harry and I usually go there on Saturday morning. In the afternoons we sometimes go to the park, which is a kilometre away from here. We play football or ride our bikes there. Paddy, our dog, loves it here in Malvern because we have a lot of space in our garden for him to run.
Every morning on weekdays, I have to get up really early – at a quarter to seven. I have to ride a bike to school and it takes me three quarters of an hour. Fortunately, I sometimes go by car with my father.
I must stop now. There isn't much time before dinner and I've got a lot of homework.
Love from
Jack
