I. READING
Debbie is a schoolgirl. She is eleven years old. She lives in a small village in the north of England. She lives with her parents and two twin brothers in a small house with a nice garden. On a weekdays Debbie gets up at seven o'clock. She leaves home at a quarter to eight and rides her bike to school. Her school is in the nearby town. It takes her half an hour to get there. Every day she has seven lessons. After school she plays with her friends for a while and comes back home late in the afternoon. At home she has dinner and does her homework. Then she helps her parents to look after her little brothers. In the evening Debbie watches her favourite cartoons on TV and sometimes reads a book. She is usually very tired and goes to bed early, at about half past eight.
